

Here is my report for your meeting later this evening (22nd February 2021)

20mph limit for A3052 and School Lane

Following Paul Hayward's email to me last week and the highways portfolio holder's response, I have formally submitted the A3052 through Newton Poppleford and Church Lane to become a 20mph limit.

This follows our previous work with the school, Chris Burhop and district councillor, Val Ranger requesting this. Sadly, it appears to have taken a death and a strongly worded email for any action to be taken on the matter, but I am hopeful that the village will see this work take place in due course. Hopefully sooner than later. I will keep you posted.

Devon County Council budget meeting sees council tax rise by 4.99 per cent

At Devon County Council's budget meeting last Thursday (18 February) the ruling group voted through a 4.99 per cent increase in the DCC element of council tax in order to offset 10 years of austerity and a social care system in crisis.

Here's my speech, which explains more. It is however, quite political!: <https://claire-wright.org/its-budget-day-at-devon-county-council-heres-my-speech/>

Motion to council opposing government U-turn on use of bee killing pesticides

I brought this motion after learning that the government intends to relax the rules on using neonicotinoids on sugar beet, even though they are proven to kill bees, which are rapidly declining. The motion will come before cabinet for a steer before being debated at the full council meeting in April. For more see...

Education Secretary ignores Devon County Council's representations (my anti-racist motion).

This was related to a motion I put forward last year, which was backed by full council. It urged the Education Secretary to take stronger action on persisting racist attitudes in schools among other things. Unfortunately, four months later and despite chasing, there has been no answer from Mr Williamson. For more see..

How the pandemic is causing an explosion in unpaid carers and distress in Devon

A piece I wrote for local press following the last DCC Health and Adult Care Scrutiny Committee meeting, where I asked that we reached out to unpaid carers again, following the news that distress had significantly increased
